

MINOLTA in Russia

EVERYWHERE in the world MINOLTA is a household name. Governments appoint MINOLTA official supplier for their agencies, foreign offices instruct their overseas services to use MINOLTA copiers, printers, and faxes – no wonder, because MINOLTA is the best answer to any mission-critical situation, be it Moon landing, or... well, Russia.

CS-Pro

CS-Pro stands for “Customer Satisfaction Program” – an eminent benchmarking effort started by MINOLTA several years ago to make literally everything in the company customer-centered. CS-Pro is also the name of MINOLTA’s new series of copiers, the copiers of the 21st century.

We don't sell hardware, we provide... solutions!

It is the policy of MINOLTA everywhere in the world to offer the best solutions in copying, printing, and faxing, which include:

- ◆ CS-Pro equipment based on cutting-edge technologies, most of which have been pioneered by MINOLTA itself. MINOLTA’s copiers are superbly robust, reliable, undemanding, and “fool-proof”, ideal work-horses for Russia. They are surprisingly compact to save your space, they generate little ozone and noise to protect your health, they meet Energy Star standards to reduce your electricity bills, they require little service to cut downtime and service costs for you. MINOLTA’s copier line is long enough to find a solution to any needs. Black-and-white and color alike. In a class by itself is the award-winning color copier CF 900.
